Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 07 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Gales slowly easing in north. Showers.

This Evening and Tonight:
Staying wet and very windy across northern Scotland with snow becoming confined to the higher hills. Rather cloudy with just a few clear periods and showers over central and southern Scotland with strong easterly winds gradually easing.

Wednesday:
Bright spells and showers, the showers most frequent and heavy over northeast Scotland. Fewer showers and more sunshine in the west. Persistent rain and gales confined to the Northern Isles.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Drier and brighter on Thursday with lighter winds. Band of rain will cross Scotland Thursday night with sunshine and scattered showers on Friday. Rain and stronger winds following on Saturday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.